The motion/proposed order attached hereto: REVIEWED.

THIS MATTER is before the court on the parties' Joint Motion for Status Conference, filed August 7, 2019. In terms of a status update, the court advises the parties and counsel that it is acutely aware that the order following the court trial in this matter is overdue, and that it is the court's highest priority to finalize it as soon as possible. However, the court is unable to put any specific timeframe on the issuance of the order. As the parties are aware, the testimonial and documentary record are extensive, and at least some of the legal issues quite complex. The court has been working on the order as diligently as the available time and resources have allowed, consistent with the ever competing demands of its caseload. The court will issue the order as expeditiously as possible.
