

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

No. 21-11239-D

In re: ELISABETH DEVOS,

Petitioner.

---

On Petition for a Writ of Mandamus to the United States
District Court for the Southern District of Florida

ORDER:

Before the Court is a petition for a writ of mandamus filed by Petitioner Elisabeth DeVos. The petition seeks a writ of mandamus directing the district court to reverse the magistrate judge's order transferring the matter to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, to deny the respondents' motion to transfer, and to grant the petitioner's motion to quash a deposition subpoena. The petitioner also seeks to stay the transfer order and certain litigation deadlines in the Northern District of California and the Southern District of Florida.

The respondents are DIRECTED to file an answer to the petition within 7 days after the date of this order. See Fed. R. App. P. 21(b)(1).

If the District Judge elects to address the petition, the Court invites the District Judge to address the petition within 7 days after the date of this order. See Fed. R. App. P. 21(b)(4). If the District Judge elects not to address the petition, the Court requests that the District Judge provide a letter to that effect to this Court's Clerk of Court within 7 days after the date of this order.

The petitioner's request to stay the transfer order and certain litigation deadlines pending the resolution of this petition for a writ of mandamus is DENIED because the petitioner has not made the requisite showing for a stay at this time. See Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 434 (2009); LeCroy v. United States, 975 F.3d 1192, 1197 (11th Cir. 2020). Should circumstances change, she may file a new motion to stay.
